

Pre-Dive Equipment Checklist

Dive Co-ordinator :	(Signature)	Dive No:	Date:
Surface Attendant/Assistant :	(Signature)	Dive No:	Date:

A pre-dive check must be performed on the equipment of both the diver/s and stand-by diver/s (where appropriate) for all dives, including snorkelling. This should be done by either the Dive Attendant, or by each diver's buddy. Pre-dive checks should include, but are not limited to, checking of the following (tick when complete):		Divers Name
(a) Air supply and regulator
Tape removed from pillar valve?
Is contents gauge at zero before turning on air supply?
Is air supply turned on?
Contents of tank?
Any leaking hoses and or gauges?
Operation of contents gauge?
Operation of second stages?
Second stage free-flow?
Torn regulator mouthpieces?
(b) Buoyancy Compensator
Inflator hose connected?
Inflator operation OK?
Dump valve operation OK?
Security of tank in BCD harness?
(c) Dry Suit: [D]	(c) Wet suit: [W]
Zipper (s) appropriately lubricated and operating properly?	Thickness ____ mm Appropriate?
Zipper(s) properly closed?	Zipper(s) properly closed?
Inflation hose connected securely?	Hood worn?
Inflation operation OK?	Boots and gloves?
Dump value operation OK on both manual and automatic release (if applicable)?	Under-vest or over-suit worn?
Neck and wrist seals not torn?	Suit and knees not torn?
Neck and wrist seals appropriately set (i.e. neck seal turned over if neoprene)	Any other parts (if applicable?)
Weight belt ____ kg. Appropriate?	Weight belt ____ kg. Appropriate?
(d) Depth gauge or computer (please circle)
Depth gauge reads zero?
MDI (maximum depth indicator) is zeroed?
Watch or timing device
Computer has been activated a few minutes before entering the water
(e) Mask/Snorkel:
Is mask skirt intact?
Is mask seal set around lenses correctly?
Is snorkel attached to mask, or stored in an accessible place on the diver's person?
(f) Knife:
Is knife accessible?
Is knife sharp?
(g) Shark Shield:
(h) Other equipment Is it functional and in good condition?											